

NOTICE OF PUBLIC OPEN HOUSE #1
City of Cornwall Archaeological Management Plan, 2022

The City of Cornwall's Planning Division is undertaking the City's first Archaeological Management Plan (AMP). The AMP will establish a management framework to ensure the future identification, evaluation and conservation of the City of Cornwall's archaeological resources.

A Draft Research and Background Report has been prepared that covers the following topics:

- Relevant terrestrial and marine archaeological conditions;
- Provincial policy and legislation;
- Municipal practices and policies;
- Strategies for engagement with Indigenous communities;
- The City of Cornwall's current development planning review process; and
- Recommendations to improve the City of Cornwall's development planning review process.

You are invited to attend a Public Open House to learn more about the project, the Draft Research and Background Report, and how to provide input. The Public Open House will be held on:

Thursday May 5, 2022 – 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm (Presentation at 5:30 pm)
Cornwall Civic Complex, Salon B (Lower level), 100 Water Street East, Cornwall, ON

Note: Kids' colouring activities will be available.

At the Public Open House, City Staff and WSP-Golder, the City's archaeological and planning consultant, will be available to answer questions and obtain comments. Should you be unable to attend the Public Open House, the display boards, presentation, and an Online Survey will be made available on the City's website following the event.

For additional information on the AMP, please visit the City's website at <https://www.cornwall.ca/en/do-business/archaeological-management-plan.aspx> . The website will be updated with upcoming engagement events, and as reports and the Draft AMP become available.
