DELEGATIONS

Mrs. Bertha Parent - Mrs Parent once again approached before Council advising that in spite of the City's action to relocate the bus stop and install a sidewalk over the boulevard, from the curb to her store, her business is still adversaly affected. Mrs Parent claims that the curb is to high and motorists, won't stop at the road to do business at her store. She is asking that Administration meet with her and her husband to see if a solution can be obtained, either in elevating the road at the front of her store in order to encourage motorists to pull up and stop. After hearing Mrs Parent's presentation, it was moved by Alderman Guindon and Lynch that this matter be referred to the Director of Engineering Services for study and a report.
